

PROFESSIONAL PREPARATION DEGREE POLICY

Under exceptional circumstances, Illinois Tech may admit and grant professional graduate degrees to students who qualify as per the IBHE regulations and those of the professional programs accreditors.

Any academic unit that wishes to make use of this will need to present to the joint governance their proposal and justification for their proposed exception policy.